Bucka Bucka Bucks

Rules & Eligibility

The Healthy Food for All program is being implemented throughout Lane County by the Willamette Farm and Food Coalition (WFFC) with funding from the Trillium Community Health Plan. While funds will be provided through the 2025 farmers market season, WFFC is actively seeking funds for 2026 and beyond in partnership with regional organizations.

Eligible Products

Bucka Bucka Bucks tokens can only be used to purchase locally grown and raised lean meats and chicken eggs. Lean meats include chicken, goat, turkey, bison, fish, lean ground beef and pork cuts.

Eligible Vendors

Market vendors who sell eligible products.

Eligibility and Rules

Target Audience
- Self-identified limited-income individuals or households
- Limited income means 300% or less of the Federal Poverty Level

Rules
- DO NOT ask for proof of income
- Customers need to go to the Market Info Booth and sign-up
- Limit of two tokens per household, per day
- Tokens must be used the same day that they are distributed
- No change can be made for tokens
- Customers can use the tokens at any eligible booth

Reimbursement
Vendors will turn in the Bucka Bucks Bucks tokens that they collect at the end of the Market Day along with SNAP tokens, DUFBs, and other currencies. Reimbursements will be processed using the same methods that are in place for SNAP and DUFB reimbursements.

Terms of Agreement

My business agrees to only accept Bucka Bucka Bucks tokens for locally grown and raised lean meats and eggs. I understand that no change can be given for tokens and that the whole token must be spent at once. I agree to turn in all Bucka Bucka Bucks tokens received to Market Staff at the end of the Market Day and understand that I will be reimbursed for the tokens using the same method that SNAP and DUFBs are reimbursed.

By signing below, you agree to participate in the Bucka Bucka Bucks program and follow the rules and expectations described in the statement above and document at large.
